

David Shribman Biography

David Shribman is the Executive Editor Emeritus of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. Mr. Shribman began his career at the Buffalo Evening News and held a range of increasingly important positions at the Wall Street Journal, New York Times, Washington Star and Boston Globe. He was assistant managing editor, columnist and Washington Bureau Chief for the Boston Globe when he was awarded the 1995 Pulitzer Prize for his analytical reporting on Washington developments and the national scene. He served as Executive Editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette for sixteen years and led the coverage of the attack at the Tree of Life synagogue, for which the newspaper was awarded the 2019 Pulitzer Prize for breaking news reporting. During the 2019-2020 academic year, he served as the J.W. McConnell Professor of Practice at the Max Bell School of Public Policy of McGill University in Montreal. David is a syndicated columnist and also serves as a Scholar-in-Residence at Carnegie Mellon University.
